

Anthony J. Cassella, II

Anthony J. Cassella, II is 1968 graduate of Lyman Hall High School. He served his country for six years in the U.S. Army Reserve. Tony is one of the most unselfish alumni of the Wallingford Public Schools, never failing to serve his fellow citizens in a variety of ways. He is one of the founders of the Wallingford Wishing Well, a non-profit organization that has raised thousands of dollars to support Wallingford children in need. Tony holds lifetime memberships in the Meriden Lions Club, the North Italian Club of Meriden, and the Elks Lodge #1365. He is an active member of the First United Methodist Church, where he is known to donate their yearly coffee needs. As one prominent Wallingford citizen noted, "Tony is always there to lend a helping hand when it is needed." Tony is also a very successful businessman. He is the owner and President of Chicks Auto Parts, Inc. on North Cherry Street in Wallingford.
