

Jane Fisher

Jane Fisher is one of the most respected community leaders in Wallingford where she has served as the Director of the Wallingford Public Library since 2013. Having spent her elementary and middle school years in the Wallingford Public Schools, Ms. Fisher earned her undergraduate degree from Quinnipiac College in 1987, graduating Summa Cum Laude while serving as the Editor-in-Chief of the college newspaper. In 1996, she received the Willis O. Underwood Alumnus Award for Distinguished Leadership from the college. Ms. Fisher earned a Master's Degree in Library and Information Studies from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and a Master's Degree in Public Administration from Baruch College. She has extensive experience working in libraries, including multiple positions at the New York Public Library. Prior to becoming a librarian, she had a distinguished career in senior living administration. Among her many acts of community service, Ms. Fisher is a member of the Wallingford Rotary Club and served as President from 2020-2021. She is also a board member of the United Way of Meriden & Wallingford, and of the Wallingford Senior Center. She was the recipient of the 2018 Quinnipiac Chamber of Commerce Community Impact Award and in 2004 she was selected by Library Journal as a "Mover and Shaker."
